

The City of San José presents Project Blossom, a FREE Multi-Family Property Management Seminar

The City of San José Code Enforcement Division invites you to attend a workshop for apartment owners and managers. Presenters include a team with years of industry experience including Jody Marshall, Education Instructor with CAA-TCAA and Lawrence Jensen, Attorney.

Training includes essential topics for successful property management

- Landlord Rights & Responsibilities
- Fair Housing
- Tenant Screening
- Eviction
- Crime Prevention
- Code Enforcement / Inspections

Register now and join us for a complimentary dinner with our Tuesday evening sessions. Receive free reference books with a Certificate of Completion at the end of the fourth class.

Time: Dinner buffet at Fresh Choice starts at 5:45 pm
Seminar training 6:30 pm – 8:30 pm with a short break

Date: Four consecutive Tuesday evenings. Register for seminars to be held during February, March, May, August and October

Place: Private meeting room at Fresh Choice
5353 Almaden Expressway
Cross street is Blossom Hill Road

RSVP: Call the San José Code Enforcement Division at 535-7770 or email ProjectBlossom@sanjoseca.gov to reserve your space now

Estimated retail value of this seminar training is over $1,250